

Hannah's Socks • warm feet, warm hearts

St. Timothy Lutheran in Charleston collects 1,400 pairs of socks

DORIS TURNER

October 23, 2009 - 8:51pm — Doris

Today Hannah's team wants to thank Kelly Reimert, the vacation bible school students, and the leaders at St. Timothy Lutheran Church in Charleston, West Virginia.

They teamed up to collect 1,400 pairs of socks and other clothing essentials, and donated them locally to the Charleston YWCA, which serves women and children who are victims of abuse and homelessness.

And, they plan to continue collecting and delivering donations in support of Hannah's mission. Wonderful!

If you'd like to do a Sock Drive, and support a shelter in a community that Hannah's Socks doesn't currently serve, start by downloading our Sock Drive Packet.